

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO
HEAD COACH
VARSITY BLUES SOCCER

The University of Toronto seeks a highly motivated and experienced full time head coach who will lead two (men's and women's teams) of Canada's preeminent soccer programs to perennial national prominence. The successful candidate will be a proven leader, motivator and coach, committed to the development of our student athletes both on the field and in the classroom. Committed to an athlete-centered philosophy and a vision driven by excellence, the head coach will recruit, train and mentor student athletes within the context of an internationally recognized research and teaching university. The head coach is supported by the high performance mandate of the University of Toronto, which includes full access to sport science service and academic excellence support.

Qualified individuals are encouraged to apply via the U of T Careers Website at:

<https://utoronto.taleo.net/careersection/10000/jobdetail.ftl?job=1804662&tz=GMT-04%3A00>

For full position description, contact Susan Ivimey at susan.ivimey@utoronto.ca

Applications deadline - Friday November 16, 2018.