

Job Summary:

The University of the Fraser Valley Cascades Athletics Program invites applications for Head Coach, Women's Soccer. This is a full time, contracted position.

The University of the Fraser Valley is the school of choice for more than 15,000 students. We are committed to teaching excellence. Our foundation for academic excellence is small class sizes, support for active research and scholarship, and a friendly supportive environment open to collaboration and innovation.

The University of the Fraser Valley Cascades varsity Soccer teams compete in the Canada West Conference and U Sports.

Under the direction of the Director of Athletics and Campus Recreation, the Head Coach Women's Soccer is responsible for the leadership of all aspects of the operation of a competitive Women's Soccer program at the university. Major responsibilities include: coaching; recruiting/retention of successful student-athletes; building a comprehensive year-round program including a focus on team training and skill development; strength and conditioning, management of a yearly budget, promotion of positive community /alumni relations and associated administrative tasks. The Coach will also be responsible for leading team fundraising efforts through donations and events. In addition, the Head Coach will nurture an environment where academic success is paramount for all members of the team while they respect the opportunity to represent the Cascades. This position will require some availability on evenings and weekends.

Qualifications:

The ideal candidate to provide these services will have:

- an undergraduate degree;
- a minimum of 5 years' soccer coaching experience preferably at the post-secondary level;
- a knowledge of current SafeSport best practices;
- a minimum National B licence, with a preference for those with a National A licence; and
- a proven track record that demonstrates possession of high levels of leadership, communication and organizational skills, sportsmanship and integrity and follows guidelines set out by the Coaches Association of Canada.

To apply, please provide the following:

About UFV:

The University of the Fraser Valley is located on the traditional territory of the Halq'eméylem-speaking peoples. We express our gratitude and respect for the honour of living and working in Stó:lō Tém:éxw

(Stó:lō Land; Stó:lō World). In all that we do, UFV strives to support and honour the Stó:lō peoples goals of self-determination and well-being on these lands. A commitment to Indigenization and Reconciliation is core to our institutional Vision and Integrated Strategic Plan: IYAQAWTXW — which means House of Transformation. This commitment includes the goal of centering Indigenous ways of knowing throughout our organization, recognizing our responsibilities to community, and a multi-year plan to increase the number of Indigenous faculty, staff, and administrators working at UFV.

UFV has four campus locations within the beautiful Fraser Valley in British Columbia. Recognized as one of BC's top employers, UFV offers a combination of career and lifestyle benefits. Join a team of 1,400 passionate professionals who value integrity, inclusivity and excellence. At UFV, you will serve a vibrant community, and shape the future of 15,000 students.

Indigenization, equity, and diversity are essential to our work as a university. A diverse community fosters the inclusion of voices that have been historically underrepresented and marginalized. At UFV, we are committed to recruiting a diverse workforce that represents the community we proudly serve. We encourage applications from Indigenous peoples, members of groups that experience discrimination due to race, colour, place of origin, ancestry, and/or religion, persons who identify as women and 2SLGBTQ+, and persons with disabilities. We invite applicants to complete a confidential self-identification survey as part of the application process. All questions are voluntary, with an option to decline to answer. Information will be used to support efforts to broaden the diversity of the recruitment process, and results are not shared with the selection committee. Inquiries about the survey may be directed to careers@ufv.ca. Learn more about our commitment to diversity and inclusion.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. In an effort to be both environmentally and fiscally responsible, UFV will contact only candidates receiving an interview. We thank all applicants for considering UFV for employment. Shortlisted applicants may be required to undergo a criminal record check and/ or a verification of their education credentials.

UFV is committed to the principle of equity in employment.
