Playing Regulations: Men's and Women's Wrestling

PR/15-1

1. CHAMPIONSHIP ROSTER (Men and Women)
Each championship team can declare up to one (1) wrestler per weight class from their most recently submitted U SPORTS Eligibility Form.

MEN - Weight classes in kilograms are under 54, 57, 61, 65, 68, 72, 76, 82, 90, 100, and 100 to 120 (heavyweight).
WOMEN - Weight classes in kilograms are under 48, 51, 55, 59, 63, 67, 72 and 72 to 82.
2. TEAM BENCH
A team can have a maximum of 4 people in the bench area including the athlete competing, coaches and support staff.
3. PARTICIPANTS
 - 3.1 TEAMS (N/A)
 - 3.2 IDENTIFICATION (N/A)
 - 3.3 INDIVIDUAL ELIGIBILITY
Competitors are not allowed to move up or down from the weight class submitted to U SPORTS from the Regional Association Championships, notwithstanding the substitution policy.
 - 3.4 INDIVIDUAL ENTRIES (Men and Women)
Within each weight class, the top three finishers from Canada West, the top three finishers from the OUA, as well as the top two finishers from the Atlantic/Quebec competition qualify for the U SPORTS Championship.
 - 3.4.1 The first, second and third place finishers from the OUA shall be entered as the OUA "A", OUA "B" and OUA "C" respectively.
 - 3.4.2 The first, second and third place finishers from Canada West shall be entered as Canada West "A", Canada West "B" and Canada West "C" respectively.
 - 3.4.3 The first and second place finishers from the Atlantic/Quebec competition shall be entered as the Atlantic/Quebec "A" and Atlantic/Quebec "B" respectively.
 - 3.4.4 Substitution: For the National Championship meet, the three conferences may substitute an athlete in the event of injury, illness, or other serious personal problems by a lower placed finisher in that weight class. If no other athletes are available to fill the void in the weight class, the institution that qualified the weight class can substitute a wrestler as long as the athlete fulfills U SPORTS eligibility requirements. If the institution that qualified the weight class cannot fill it, then other institutions, in order of finish in the weight class, can attempt to fill the void. It should be noted that institutions can only have one wrestler per weight class. All requests for substitutions must be forwarded to the U SPORTS office immediately following the Conference Championships for consideration and decision, before the substitute wrestler may compete. The coach and Athletic

3.6 TEAM ENTRIES – reference 3.4

3.7 TEAM RANKINGS (N/A)

4. COMPETITION

4.1 CHAMPIONSHIP FORMAT

The U SPORTS Championship, for both men and women, shall take place at the same location over two (2) days as set out below.

4.2 SELECTION, SEEDING, DRAWS, POOLS, TRIALS AND HEATS

4.2.1 DRAW (Men and Women)

The following draw will be used for the U SPORTS Wrestling Championship.

1. A two-pool format will be used when there are six or more wrestlers in a weight class. If the number of wrestlers is five or less, then one pool will be used.
2. In the two-pool format, wrestlers will be seeded according to conference placement as outlined below. In the one pool format the top two wrestlers will be seeded so that they should not meet until the final.
3. Within a pool, wrestlers will compete in a round robin where each wrestler will wrestle all other members of the pool.

4.2.2 SEEDING: TWO-POOL FORMAT

Wrestlers will be placed into the two pools based on their conference of origin in the following pattern. Starting placement within pools for preliminary rounds will be done by random draw. In the event that one or more wrestlers are unable to compete after the weigh-in, please reference items 1 and 2 below.

Pool One

1. Canada West A
2. OUA B
3. Canada West C
4. Atlantic/Quebec A or B *

Pool Two

1. OUA A
2. Canada West B
3. OUA C
4. Atlantic/Quebec B or A *

In even numbered years, Atlantic/Quebec A will include the first place wrestlers from alternate weight classes, beginning with the lowest weight, as well as the second place wrestlers from the remaining weight classes. Wrestlers not in this group will make up

Atlantic/Quebec B. In odd numbered years, these groups of weight classes will be reversed.

1. In the event that a single wrestler within a pool is unable to compete upon conclusion of the weigh-in period, the same seeding system will be used and the affected pool will be reduced to the three remaining athletes.
2. In the event that two wrestlers within the same pool are unable to compete upon conclusion of the weigh-in period, two pools of three will be formed in the following manner:
 1. If the two wrestlers are from either Canada West or OUA, then the top ranked wrestler from the other pool will be moved so that each pool has a representative with a different number of wrestlers from each of Canada West and OUA.
For example:
Within Pool One, if Canada West A and OUA B are unable to compete, then OUA A from Pool Two would be moved to Pool One.
 2. If one of the two missing wrestlers is from an Atlantic team, the Atlantic wrestler from the other pool will be moved to the pool missing the two wrestlers.

4.2.3 SEEDING: ONE-POOL FORMAT

In the event that the number of competitors is five or less then a round robin competition will take place between those five. Seeding for the top two competitors will be by majority vote of the U SPORTS wrestling coaches. (Where and when)

4.2.4 FINAL PLACEMENT WITHIN POOLS AND ADVANCEMENT

In order to determine placement within pools for advancement, the classification system for round robin competition as described in the CAWA Rules will be used.

Where two pools are used, each wrestler will compete against the person in the other pool with the same placement. That is

- Pool A 1st vs. Pool B 1st for 1st / 2nd
- Pool A 2nd vs. Pool B 2nd for 3rd / 4th
- Pool A 3rd vs. Pool B 3rd for 5th / 6th
- Pool A 4th vs. Pool B 4th for 7th / 8th

Where one pool is used, the results in that pool shall determine the final placement.

11. APPENDICES

TIE BREAKING: GROUP FINALS

In the event of a tie between two teams, the placing will be determined by using the following tie-breaking criteria. Each step shall be applied until the tie no longer exists.

- * the team with the most 1st place finishes
- * the team with the most 2nd place finishes
- * the team with the most 3rd place finishes
- * the team with the most 4th place finishes
- * the team with the most 5th place finishes
- * the team with the most 6th place finishes

If a tie still exists, it shall be recorded as such. In the event of a tie between more than two teams, use the tie-breaking criteria listed above until one place can be determined. Then continue using the criteria to break the remaining tie(s).
